

Job Description

Please send your CV to jungseok.lee@ivi.int

| | |
|--|--|
| Title: Consultant / Researcher | Organization (Sub-department/Department, Unit): Policy and Economic Research Department, EPIC |
| Direct Supervisor (Specify the position): Head of Policy and Economics Research | No. of Direct Subordinates: 0 |
| Indirect Supervisor (Specify the position): N/A | No. of Indirect Subordinates: 0 |

Job Purpose

This job is responsible to conduct policy and economic research (PER) activities in professional collaboration with various departments and programs within IVI.

Key Roles, and Accountabilities

- 1) Literature reviews, data extraction/cleaning/analysis under the guidance of a senior researcher
- 2) Conduct cost-effectiveness analyses
- 3) Carry out patient-level cost-of-illness (economic burden) studies
- 4) Assist/write reports and develop presentations on research work with support from other researchers
- 5) Involve in data collection activities and conduct economic analyses as per the research plan with the guidance of a senior researcher
- 6) Communicate and coordinate various project-related activities for timely and effective executions including protocol updates and IRB submission/approval
- 7) Provide general supports for PER activities as required

Job Requirements and Qualifications

| | |
|---|--|
| Education Requirements (Specify field of studies preferred) | Ph.D. or Master's degree with some experience (Health Economics, Statistics, Public Health, or other relevant majors) |
| Related Work Experience | M.S.: 0 – 5 years Ph.D.: 0 – 2 years |
| Technical and Professional Skills / Knowledge (e.g., official certification, training, project, etc.) | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Some knowledge in cost-effectiveness analysis, economic burden (cost-of-illness) studies, statistical analysis, longitudinal data management • Experience in STATA preferred (experiences in other statistical packages can be considered as well). |
| Key Competency | Communication, planning & organizing, commitment to continuous learning |
| Language Proficiency | Working-level proficiency in English Working-level proficiency in Korean is an asset |